Welcome to the Eynsham Village Show 2017!

I am writing this in the middle of July and what an amazing summer we've had so far, and although it means lots of watering in gardens and on allotments, I hope it continues in to the holiday season. Fabulous weather also means lots of opportunity to get out with your cameras - take a look at classes 71 to 75 for this year's subjects.

I encourage you to take a look through the class list and see all the things you might be able to turn your hand too and enter as many as you can - you've got to be in it to win it! As usual, we've changed the Children's classes and also the Arts and Crafts, so there is something for everyone. Children can enter the 'general classes', so if you have a budding chef, gardener, artist or photographer in the family, please do encourage them to enter.

The usual favourite classes are back again this year - men-folk, we are waiting to be 'wowed' by your skill and technique, you have a new challenge this year - take a look at class 57!

Class 55: Locally Sourced Dish. To be considered 'local', ingredients will be from a radius of 30miles of the centre of Eynsham - the number of ingredients that fall into this category will be taken in to account in the judging. A list of ingredients must accompany the entry identifying the ingredients' origin.

A New Fruit and Vegetable Class... We are very aware that tastes and fashions change and we are more able to grow different plants as our climate changes. To encourage you to try new things, we have introduced class 18 Exotic Fruit or Veg. How about having a go at melons, sweet potatoes or anything else you grow and consider 'exotic'? We can't wait to see your entries.

If you're an old hand with the show, we welcome you back, if you're new to it then please do join us - you can enter as many entries in each class as you wish. Take a look at Classes 87 to 89 for pure fun!

If you did win a cup or trophy last year, please could you ring me (07730 954497) so we can arrange collection/delivery?

See you there on the 23rd September.
