Apologies for Absence – Mrs M Sheppard & Mr P Staley

Minutes of meeting of 2 February 2010 – It was agreed that the Minutes of the meeting held on 2 February 2010 were a true record.

Declarations of Interest – Mrs M Jones declares a personal and prejudicial interest in item “Application R3.0037/10 Eynsham County Primary School” as she is a school governor.

Decisions

The under mentioned application has been granted planning permission, subject to conditions:

- 09/1541/p/fp 61 Wytham View Erection of two storey rear and single storey front extension. Granted
- 10/0051/P/LB & FP 2 Abbey Street Alterations to renovate existing property including erection and rear erection and removal of internal partitions of existing garage to re-instate as a double garage with replacement up and over. Granted

The under mentioned application has been refused planning permission:

- None

Applications

Mrs Jones was asked by the Council to stay in the meeting as she may have specialist knowledge. She did not participate in the discussion or vote.

- Oxfordshire County Council Application
R3.0037/10 Eynsham County Primary School Beech Road Eynsham Construction of a new Synthetic Multi Use Games Area (MUGA) with 3m high perimeter fencing and 4 floodlight columns (6.7m high)
The Council notes that the School will open up the MUGA for community use and that they will continue discussions with the Council. Details of the effect of lighting on neighbouring houses were not included with the application and the Council would want assurance that this has been considered and is acceptable. With these observations, the Council does not object to the application.

Date of next meeting – 29 March 2010 (If required)
